

Call for Proposals

National Road Bicentennial Symposium

Saturday, October 27, 2018

Washington & Jefferson College

Washington, Pennsylvania

Academic and public historians, graduate and undergraduate students, and independent scholars are invited to submit proposals for presentations or papers focused on the National Road, internal improvements, and United States transportation history. Alternate session formats, including roundtable discussions, film viewings, and hands-on programs, will also be considered. The proposals should include a 250- to 500-word abstract for the presentation and a CV/résumé.

Authors of books on related topics may submit a request to hold a book signing.

Please send all submissions to Hilary_Miller@nps.gov.

Deadline: July 31, 2018
